DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Moore et al. (US 5,630,127).

Moore et al. disclose a system (GRMS) and method for assessing risk for a financial institution, the steps comprising:

- → receiving financial institution risk assessment data (812) from a plurality of sources, each financial institution risk assessment includes data representative of a plurality of selected financial institution risk factors (col.21, line 63-col.22, line 20);
- → generating a financial institution composite risk assessment data in accordance with a calculation based on pre-selected financial institution risk assessment parameters and a comparison therto (abstract; fig.1; col.3, line 40-col.5, line 55);
- → outputting (report output) the financial institution composite risk assessment on a computer readable medium;
- → wherein the plurality of risk factors are selected from the group of credit risk factor, market factor, liquidity risk factor, operational risk factor, and reputation risk factor (col.12, lines 40-67).

Moore et al. further disclose a system and method for tracking at least one of a financial institution examination and financial institution inspection utilizing a computer based system (GRMS), the steps comprising:

- → initiating a scheduled stage of the financial institution examination, the initiating stage including generating an financial institution examination form, the computer based system having means for receiving data to store on the form (figs. 1,2, and 9);
- → linking an additional financial institution examination form to the financial institution examination by the computer based system (col.4, line 10-col.5, line 30);
- → notifying an examiner (col.4, lines 65-68 or col.8, lines 4-6) when the financial institution examination is due to be completed;
- → receiving financial institution examination data into the financial institution examination form and additional financial institution forms associated with the computer based system (figs. 8-10);
- → verifying, by the computer based system, all necessary financial institution examination data has been entered into the system by performing a check thereof in accordance with pre-selected criteria (col.16, line 29-col.20, line 35);
- → communicating data representative of a financial institution examination form and additional financial institution forms to a supervisor for review (col.4, lines 65-68 or col.8, lines 4-6);
- → receiving data representative of supervisory approval (col.4, lines 65-68 or col.8, lines 4-6); and
- → storing and updating at least one database upon receipt of the data representative of supervisory approval (col.4, lines 65-68 or col.8, lines 4-6).
